

Public activities – political contributions, lobbying, charity

As a company we do not support political parties nor do we make financial or other contributions (in time or products) to persons in politics.

Employees may do so personally in their spare time, but they should not give the impression that our company provides support.

We actively participate in discussions on social and ethical issues. We also encourage certain appointed employees to cooperate with governments and organisations in formulating rules and laws that may have any effect on our business.

We make community contributions and charitable donations in a transparent and professional way, always in compliance with our internal rules.
